

The Allfather

You again.
What have you done this time?

You're always causing trouble.
Why can't you just behave sometimes?

You killed Balder the Fair!

never proven.
I know it was you.
I'm not stupid.
Why do you act that way?

You won't like the answer.

You know the response anyways if you just look back at all that you've done.

Loki-

Loki-

Look at you!

You're too busy wallowing in self-pity to see that I care.

The Trickster

You again.

What do you want from me this time?

Well, you're always using me.
And it's not like I can help
the way I am.

That was never proven.

Why does everyone hate me?

My own children tried to kill me.
I think I can handle it.

Nobody cares about what happens to me.

I'm just a dispensable pawn
in Life's game.

I'm always used.
That's all you people do and yet you expect me not to act within my nature.

Look at you!
Everyone loves you!
